DEDICATION

With admiration for one who has shown to us a beautiful character, who has given us a life made richer by her companionship, and who has taught us the value of true friendship, preparedness, and a cheerful disposition, we lovingly dedicate this, the first annual of the Boonville High School to our classmate, Lucille Stinson.

CLASS HISTORY

The Freshman class of 1936 enrolled with thirty-four students. The class was sponsored by Mr. Brooks and Miss Woody. Except for the trip to Norvale Crag, the year passed uneventfully. During the sophomore year, the class went to Sulphur Springs. Mr. Deal was the class sponsor.

The Junior year was a busy one for every member of the class. The juniors entertained the seniors at a banquet, and afterward a picture show. The school sponsored a popularity contest which was won by a junior, Aileen Johnson. Miss Hayes was our sponsor.

Our senior year was destined to be the outstanding year of the class. The sponsoring of the year book was an outstanding accomplishment. Several members of the class helped the school to win the Journal-Sentinel Girls' basket-ball tournament.

Bernard Mock was selected as our president. Mr. Walker was our sponsor. The class selected as mascot, Barbara Speas Coram.

This class has won for Boonville High School several athletic records.

C L A S S P R O P H E C Y

Joy Riden, you will have a chance to make good in your education, but you will be hindered by the boys.

Ruth Oakes, you would never think you would be a tight rope walker in the future, but you will.

"Lib" Bohannon, you will never admit that you will milk a cow, but you will in the "nick" of time.

With your voice, Jessie Norman, we all know you will end up as a French actress.

Dorothy Coram, your ability to play basket-ball will be used in keeping house.

Aileen Johnson, you think you are going to be the class's Jeannette McDonald, but you will spend your time keeping tab on trucks.

Don't worry, Pauline Cockerham. The almanac predicts for you to always have your man.

Kathleen Vestal, you are to become America's most beautiful, most desired and best known artist model.

Pete Amburn, you asked if you would ever live in Elkin. It is predicted you will be an old maid.

Pauline Hill, at Guilford you will meet your fate, "a husband".

The almanac predicts for you, Edity Spencer, to be a ballet dancer.

Mary Ruth Fleming, the almanac predicts you are still riding in a blue Chevrolet, but it won't last long. It will be a T. Model next.

Helen Doub, when you finish your career at Campbell College you will help drive a truck for the Basketeria at Elkin.

Billy Brendle, you will make a professional ball player. We all wish you luck.

Paul Woodruff, you will be able to handle your wife and children, because you already have hands large enough to hold a basket-ball in each.

Allen Trivette, you will be well known as an extraordinary radion news commentator, such as Walter Winchell.

Harold Adams, you will be 6 ft. 2 in high.

Travis Moxley, well, you will be America's professional tobacco auctioneer.

Bernard Mock, you will have everything a woman desires, the voice of Nelson Eddy, looks of Clark Gable, and the love making ability of Robert Taylor.

C L A S S W I L L

Ruth Oakes wills part of her fat to "Lib" Bohannon so she won't look so small beside "Nick" Hobson.

Kathleen Vestal wills to Wenona Fleming her ability to keep her mind off the boys.

Paul Woodruff wills his big feet to Ray Norman so Ray won't have any trouble keeping up with Thelma Renegar.

Pauline Hill wills her "squeaky" voice to Robert Burgess so he can out-talk Joy Riden.

Mary Ruth Fleming wills to Lucille Fletcher her fondness for the Yadkinville boys.

Harold Adams wishes to leave to Roxie Brown his ability to get behind someone and read library books on Literature class.

Dorothy Coram wills her ability to learn Physics to the Junior class because she thinks they will need it if they have as hard a time as she has.

Aileen Johnson wills her ability to sing to Glenn Caudle because if he goes to Hollywood he will need it to rank up with the other famous singers.

Edith Spencer wills her "slow and pokey" ways to Miss Abrams.

"Lib" Bohannon wills her fondness for Dorothy Coram's cousins to Ollie Mae Mosteller.

Helen Doub wills her place on the basket ball court to Dorothy Fleming.

Pauline Cockerham wills her ability to write "love" to Harold Stinson so he won't have a hard time corresponding with Dorothy Fleming.

Travis Moxley wills his place in Cam Shore's heart to Curtis Hobson. He's sure Curtis will appreciate it.

Bernard Mock wills Ruth to John Wade Shore until she graduates.

Allen Trivett wills his football career to J. Lee Campbell whom he thinks will need it at Duke in 1941.

Joy Riden wills her "Uncle Willie" to Bernice Bangle.

Jessie Norman wills her knowledge of Physics back to Mr. Martin.

Billy Brendle wills his Physics book to Fred Coram.

"Pete" Amburn wills her place in the senior class to Graham Stinson. She thinks Mr. Walker will be lonesome without her.

WISE CRACKS FROM THE JUNIOR CLASS

What's Glenn Caudle--an information bureau?

When Bryce gets old enough, he'll be another Clark Gable, if he can grow a mustache.

Ben thinks the girls grow bigger and better on the other side of the river.

The high school wants Ralph Dobbins and Ray Norman to publish a spelling book.

Louzetta Vestal has become a good weatherman--she predicts no hard rains, just a sprinkle.

Harold Stinson is little but loud.

Will Cam be wearing her cameos when Gabriel blows his trumpet?

Nannie Woodruff--she may be only a bluff but she'd rather be a Huff.

Wenona Fleming--she may be a blusher but on the heart she's a crusher.

Why does Mary Ruth Hobson always say "go get Doc" when she gets sick?

Graham is teaching Dizzy Dean to pitch baseball.

Fred Corum is taking basketball lessons from Bumgarner.

Curtis, the Beta Club won't have you much longer if you don't quit sleeping on class.

Hollywood admires Joan Crawford's naturally curved eyebrows, but they've never seen Boonville's Ollie Mae Mosteller.

C L A S S H I S T O R Y

September 14, 1937, the eight grade of Boonville High School had forty-nine members. Most of the members were from the lower grades; however we found Paul Brown, Vaudy Hobson, James Stewart, Bruce Vestal, Arvil Caudle and Glenn Dezern waiting to welcome us. As the year passed we're sorry to say that Vaudy Hobson, Clark Jester, Violet Angell and Bruce Vestal fell by the way side. Evelyn sprinkle, Martha Cecil and Grady Fowler moved to another community. On May 20, 1938 most of the eight grade girls went on a trip to Raleigh. Mrs. Reece was in charge and the trip was made in Mr. Frank Hobson's truck. During the month of April the boys went to Rockford on a fishing trip. Mr. Deal and Mr. Walker were in charge. They hunted frogs and had a wiener roast. Part of the boys planned to go on a trip to the mountains the last part of July. The trip however was made in August. Mr. Walker was in charge. When the year was over all were advanced to the ninth grade, but Orrell Bohannon and Marvin Hicks.

In the ninth grade Robert Burgess, Curtis Haynes, and Grey Brown joined our class. During the year Bill Amburn become a page at the North Carolina General Assembly. Alvis Key moved away while Glenn Dezern, Albert Wagoner, Curtis Haynes and Grey Brown started in different walks of life. The class officers are: Claude Denny, President; Allene Bovender, Vice-president; Grace Marie Jester, Secretary and Treasurer.

Fourth row: Orrill Bohannon, Marvin Hicks, Clyde Brown, Mrs. Anita Reece, Garl Moxley, Gilbert Pardue, C. L. Fleming, Bill Dobbins, Delbert Caudle.

Fifth row: Bobby McCormick, Lloyd Burgess, E. K. Hurt, Howard Wooten, Watt Deal.

What makes Bubby Bohannon hang around the cafe so much lately?

The teachers will have to learn to kick if Marvin Hicks ever gets out of the eight grade.

Wonder if Bill Dobbins will ever get in a hurry?

Why does Bobbie Hobson like to see snow?

Who knows why Carolyn Fletcher sits by the south window in study hall?

Complaints have been made about Lucille Wagoner dropping her mirror.

We often wonder what Axie Shore will do next year without her sister?

Will some one help Cecil Snow with her studying?

Will Callie Jane Caudle always be working math?

We dedicate the second seat in the third row in math room to Kathleen Peele.

Wonder why Bobbie McCormick has quit calling for Helen Sizemore on history class?

GIRLS' RECORD

Boonville girls were champions of them all this year. They were victorious in every tournament they entered which included: the Flat Rock Tourney, the Four County Tourney, the Yadkin County Championship and as a grand climax to a most outstanding season they were crowned champions of the Journal-Sentinal, North-West N. C. Tournament. It was truly a fitting finish for a most remarkable group of young girls. In all they won thirty-one games, lost three and tied one.

Coached by Professor Albert Martin, the team led by Amburn, Doub, and Woodruff as forwards, and J. Norman, Coram, V. Norman and Coe as guards displayed the style of play that is witnessed only in champions. The above mentioned players were ably assisted by Mosteller, Shore, Dobbins, Pardue and Fletcher.

Boonville's girls, a group much smaller than the average team, made up for this literal shortness by their speed, cleverness and deception. It was in this latter phase of play that their performance displayed a poise and finesse seldom seen in the play of girls. It was this, together with their systematic co-ordination that led to their highly successful season.

Resume of Season

Getting off to a slow start at the beginning of the basket-ball season due to the fact that there was a scarcity of experienced players the Boonville boys hit their stride before mid-season, and from then on gave a good account of themselves in keeping with the basket-ball tradition of the school.

The team was composed mostly of boys who had never gone out for basket-ball before the beginning of the present season, and luckily this was a group of willing workers. Only three players had ever played any varisty basket-ball. These boys were Mock, Stinson, and Woodruff. With these boys supplying the nucleus, Coach Deal built a team that was good enough to win 22 out of 31 games against the best competition in the Northwest. Mock led the individual scoring parade with 463 points, while Stinson trailed him closest with 204. By his sterling performance through-out all the season, and especially in the greatest of all tournaments, the Journal and Sentinel, Mock won a place on the All-tournament team. Other boys going a long way toward making this a successful basket-ball season were: Curtis Hobson, Fred Coram, Robert Burgess, Billy Brendle, Loyd Burgess, Harold Stinson, James Stewart, and Gilbert Pardue.
